PETITION TO REVIVE FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ISSUE FEE UNDER 35 U.S.C. §151 and 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a) or (b)

This petition to revive and withdraw any holding of abandonment of the above-identified application for U.S. patent for failure to timely pay issue fee is made under 35 U.S.C. §151 and 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a). In the alternative, this petition to revive and withdraw any holding of abandonment of the above-identified application for U.S. patent for failure to timely pay issue fee is made under 37 C.F.R. 1.137(b).

The above-identified application for U.S. patent became abandoned for failure to timely pay the issue fee on or before October 7, 1999. The abandonment date is October 8, 1999.

PETITIONS OFFICE

Applicant respectfully submits that the abandonment of the above-identified application was unavoidable. The entire delay in filing the required reply, i.e., paying the issue fee, from the due date for the reply until the filing of this petition was unavoidable and unintentional.

In docketing the date upon which the issue fee was due, the undersigned inadvertently docketed the issue fee due date as November 7, 1999, as opposed to October 7, 1999. The error was discovered by the undersigned on Thursday, October 14, 1999, in connection with the undersigned's effort to reach Examiner Venkat by telephone on same date following her return from her extended vacation in connection with a related application. The undersigned has been registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office since about 1984, and he has been admitted to practice as an attorney since about 1982. The undersigned is well versed with respect to U.S.C., Title 35 and C.F.R., Title 37. The undersigned well knows that the time period for paying an issue fee is statutorily defined as three months from the issue date pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §151, which statutory period cannot be extended. The error in recording November, rather than October, was simply clerical in nature and totally inadvertent. Because the undersigned relied upon his own docketing error, the failure to pay the issue fee was the cause for the delay. Accordingly, the entire delay in filing the required reply, i.e., paying the issue fee, from the due date for the reply until the filing of this petition was unavoidable and unintentional was unavoidable and unintentional.

It is therefore respectfully submitted that the failure to pay the issue fee was totally unavoidable under 35 U.S.C. §151 and/or 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a). Thus, kindly charge deposit account number 50-0951, the appropriate fee for this petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(a) and 37 C.F.R. §1.17(l). If, however, it is determined that the delay was unintentional under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b), kindly charge deposit account number 50-0951 the appropriate fee for this petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.137(b) and 37 C.F.R. §1.17(m) to avoid any further delay.

In the event a terminal disclaimer is required pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.137(c), a Terminal Disclaimer is filed herewith which disclaims a terminal part of the term of the patent equivalent to the period of abandonment of the above-identified application or on any application that contains a specific reference under 35 U.S.C. §§120, 121 or 365(c) to this application. Please file the Terminal Disclaimer faxed herewith in the above-identified application for U.S. patent, only if mandated by 37 C.F.R. §1.137(c) under these circumstances. Please charge deposit account number 50-0951 any fee that may be due for filing, if necessary, a Terminal Disclaimer under 37 C.F.R. 1.137(c). A duplicate of this paper is faxed herewith.

Applicant has filed in connection with the above-identified application for U.S. patent, the appropriate small entity status form, and it has been determined by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office that Applicant qualifies as a small entity under 37 C.F.R. §§1.9(f) and 27(c).

Also faxed herewith in duplicate is Part B --Issue Fee Transmittal, which has been executed by the undersigned and which authorizes the $605.00 issue fee to be charged to deposit account number 50-0951.

Applicant has also faxed herewith a paper entitled "Comments on Statements for Reason for Allowance" for filing in the above-identified application for U.S. patent, which responds to the Examiner's reasons for allowance.

If you should have any questions or require additional information or clarification, Applicant respectfully requests that you contact the attorney of record herein, Peter J. Manso, at the phone numbers noted below at your earliest convenience.

Respectfully Submitted,
